

Comanche Nation Construction is looking for a hard-working, dependable, and motivated individual that have experience in Construction.

CONSTRUCTION DIVISION

SUPERINTENDENT

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Superintendents' primary function will be to manage, coordinate, supervise and direct the construction tasks performed by the company workforce and subcontractors. The superintendent will be physically present while work is ongoing. Ensure that the work is completed within the specified timeframe. Cooperate with Quality Control personnel to ensure that quality products are used in the construction and appropriate safety measures are taken on the construction site.

Superintendents will report to the Project Manager on the projects to which they are assigned.

ASSIGNMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY AND AUTHORITY:

QUALIFICATIONS:

- bachelor's degree in engineering, architecture, or construction management from an ABET accredited institution and a minimum five years of general building construction experience as a superintendent OR minimum 15 years of construction experience as a superintendent on multi-disciplined construction work
- Experience in government contracting, preferably with the Corps of Engineers
- knowledgeable about various construction tools, methods, and equipment used in multi-disciplined projects
- possess good managerial skills and leadership qualities with ability to speak with clarity a
- ability to manage multiple projects at the same time with the ability to work under pressure
- ability to use computer programs such as Timberline, Microsoft Project, Microsoft Office
- OSHA 30-hour certification
- CPR/First Aid certification
- Minimum 24-hour HAZWOPER certification