CONSULTING WITH TRIBAL NATIONS
at SAIGE

Date: June 12-14, 2018

Audience: All Federal, State, Tribal and Local Municipality Employees

Description: This interactive course provides participants with an overview of Consulting with Tribal Nations through instructor-led lectures, discussions, and case studies. The culminating activity is a mock consultation where participants play the various roles. The training will enable participants to acquire the basic knowledge of the tribal consultation process, cultural awareness and the importance of engaging with Tribal nations on matters that affect them. This course was created to support the Department of the Interior's Policy on Consultation with Indian Tribes and the directive for training on Tribal consultation.
