

GROCER NEWS

Walmart is adjusting its store hours for a second time this week and said late Wednesday that it's also temporarily closing its auto centers.

Starting Thursday, hours will be reduced to 7 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. except for stores that already open later than 7. The hours include stores that were previously open 24 hours.

Customers will be limited to quantities purchased in some categories including paper products, milk, eggs, cleaning supplies, hand sanitizer, water, diapers, wipes, formula and baby food.
